

FIGHTING HARRIS'S GATES.

CUBANS MAKE DASHES AROUND THE OUTPOSTS.

PLOT AGAINST GEN. WEYLER.

Gen. Lee's Report to the State Department
Is a Sensational Document.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., May 12.—A band of Cubans under Delgado approached Havana, firing at the outposts. The firing was heavy for over an hour, and it is said that several Spanish soldiers were killed and wounded, and that the Cubans' loss was still greater.

The Cubans are making frequent dashes around the outposts with their cavalry, and every morning from ten to twenty wounded Spanish soldiers are taken into the city hospitals.

PLOT AGAINST WEYLER.

Fondsvila Has, Accordingly, Been Relieved From Duty.

NEW YORK, May 12.—A dispatch to the Journal from Havana, via Key West, says: Col. Fondsvila, former Spanish commandant of the town of Guanabacoa, has been relieved by Capt. Gen. Weyler.

This was done under instructions, it is said, from Madrid, pending the results of new investigations into the Ruiz case, expected to be commenced upon the arrival at Havana of Mr. Weyler, the new Spanish commander sent out by President McKinley.

I am told that Fondsvila is charged with a "Masonic conspiracy calculated to bring about Weyler's removal from duty, spread malicious sentiment through the army, work up a fraternal feeling in favor of a continuance of bloodshed and to popularize the idea of Spanish military evacuation."

Documents compromising Fondsvila are said to have been seized, in the shape of a Masonic appeal addressed in his own handwriting to brother Masons also officers in the army and navy, who are Cuban leaders fighting in the field.

GEN. LEE'S REPORT.

The Document a Strong Argument for the Insurgent Cause.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 12.—Those who profess to be familiar with the contents of the confidential report sent to the State Department recently by Consul General Lee, and which was referred to in the Senate debate yesterday, assert that it is a strong argument for the insurgent cause. They say it declares that the Cubans are gaining strength daily; that Weyler is a liar, and that the Cuban cause is a just one, and that the Cuban cause is a just one, and that the Cuban cause is a just one.

Gen. Lee says that Gen. Weyler has been a complete failure, and that his declaration of the pacification of various provinces in Cuba is wholly unjustified by the facts. The report says that the insurgents have carried out their plan of campaign successfully since the beginning of the revolution, and that it has been, and will be, a complete success. Gen. Lee says that the Cuban military grounds the United States would be justified in complete failure, and that the Cuban cause is a just one, and that the Cuban cause is a just one.

Accompanying the report from the Consul General are similar documents from Consuls in Matanzas, Pinar del Rio, and other parts of the capital, all of the same general tenor.

MURDERERS OF LOUIS BOLINGER.

YOUNG BELCHER, ALLEGED ACCOMPLICE. YOUNG CISCO, ALLEGED ACCOMPLICE.

BOLINGER'S MURDER.

Cold-Blooded Crime, an Old and Respected Man Being Killed by an Illiterate Boy.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
MOUNTAIN GROVE, Mo., May 12.—The facts disclosed at the preliminary hearing of the Lewis Bolinger murder prove that it was one of the most unprovoked crimes that ever blackened the history of a civilized community. The evidence shows that Bolinger had been continuously tormented by young Belcher hunting on his premises for some time previous to the killing, and when he discovered that he was in a position to know that the crime would have been sufficient to cause death. When Bolinger was found lying on the ground, he was unconscious, and his son, who made the discovery, supposed his father had been killed by a horse, as a lot of them were gathered about the spot where the victim was lying. But after the charge was made, he regained consciousness long enough to tell that he had been shot by the boy, Noah Belcher. The murdered man was about 50 years of age, and a widower, while his slayer is a lad scarcely 16 years old, whose alleged accomplices are still younger. It is generally believed by those who have seen the bodies of the victims that Bolinger was a man of high character, and that he was a man of high character, and that he was a man of high character.

Attendance at the meetings of the Missouri Funeral Directors' Association now in convention at the Merchants' Hotel has increased to about 100 and the proceedings are regarded with great interest. The country undertakers are greatly interested in the display of funeral trappings which enterprising firms have placed in the hotel corridors.

The Street Commissioner gave orders that the work be stopped. The work was begun through a misunderstanding.

JOHN R. RYAN HAS A RECORD.

MISSING INSPECTOR OF THE PROVIDENT UNION CO.

HE HAS BEEN A CONVICT.

His Connection with the Romance in the Life of a Lawyer Who Was Murdered.

Two desks, a typewriter, a safe full of records that tell nothing and three "supreme" officers who would like to draw their salaries are all that remain of the Provident Union Insurance Co., which held forth in luxurious style in the Chemical building for six months.

Supreme Inspector John V. Ryan has disappeared and left behind him 28 cents to pay the claims of policy holders.

The career of the Provident Mutual company was brief but brilliant. Ryan supplied the brilliance, and lack of funds was the principal reason for its brief career.

Ryan was the whole show while it lasted. Smooth of tongue and majestic of manner, he was an impressive figure in the elegantly appointed headquarters of the "Supreme Council." He would not let a moment slip and left for Louisville last Friday without going through the formality of straightening up the company's affairs.

Those familiar with his methods and his previous record believe he will not come back.

Ryan came to St. Louis from Dallas, Tex., in the latter part of November, a representative of the American Benevolent Legion.

In December 11, 1896, he got a charter for the Legion from the State and opened the headquarters of the "Supreme Council" in the Chemical building. Two months later he had the name of the Legion changed to the Provident Insurance Union. He was a big game from the start, and made constant endeavors to enlist the aid of moneyed men and men well known in the community. Later developments show that he was utterly unscrupulous in using the names of citizens without their consent to further his own ends.

By March 1 he had worked up something of a following and announced that he would organize a National Council in St. Louis. The council was organized at the Fraternal building in the latter part of March. A week ago he issued a circular containing the following list of officers of the National Council: President, John V. Ryan, Supreme Secretary, M. R. Robinson, Supreme Treasurer, M. R. Robinson, Supreme Counselor, M. R. Robinson, Supreme Auditor, M. R. Robinson, Supreme Steward, M. R. Robinson, Supreme Chaplain, M. MILNER SAYS HE IS SURRENDERING YET.

BUT THE "PUSH" CLAIMS THAT HE HAS SURRENDERED.

APPOINTMENT OF BROOKER.

The Street Commissioner Says It Was to Please the Dear Good

Onkel Henry.

Has Street Commissioner Milner surrendered to the push? This is the question of the hour at the City Hall.

The push says he has. Mr. Milner says he hasn't. And there you are.

For several days Mr. Milner has been in the saddle. He has been swimming his horse through seas of imaginary "blud." With his large, gleaming saber he has charged repeatedly on the solid phalanxes of the push and tried to drive them back from his punch bowl.

He was supposed to be succeeding prodigiously, but Tuesday afternoon a dispatch from the seat of war announced that the gang had crossed the trocha and put Milner to ignominious rout.

The push held a council of war in the second floor corridor of the City Hall Wednesday morning and the result was that the war was over. They then fell to fighting among themselves over the prospective division of the spoils.

One of the leaders said: "There is no doubt of it. Milner has surrendered. The pile is ours. The guillotine is already being erected at the top of the Mayor's secret railway. If you listen you can hear the rattle of the hammers."

"The work of decapitation will begin in a day or two. Milner has saved his head, but off will come those of a few score of his underlings. There'll be jobs for everybody in the Street Department."

Tuesday's report of a capitulation was based on the fact that Mr. Milner sent to Mayor Ziegenhain late in the afternoon the appointment of J. W. Brooker as superintendent of the Third District to take the place of Henry Reinsteiner, who was elected Marshal at the late election.

Mr. Milner announced merely the day before that the appointment would be made. He made no mention of the fact that he was assisted to get good and ready by Uncle Phil's thumb-screw.

Mr. Milner says: "I'll be a fool. He also brings down his big double fist on his desk and says: 'You're out of the south wing of the old municipal barn.'"

"I have not surrendered," he says. "I am not in the business of surrendering. There is no occasion to surrender."

He then gives an imitation of a man holding the post at Thermopylae single-handed against a horde of invaders.

"I gave you some strong talk the other day," he continues, "about what I was going to do. I said not a man was going to be fired to make room for friends of politicians. Well, that goes."

"I want this appointment of Brooker. I left the matter entirely with the Mayor. I went to him and says I, 'Mr. Mayor, the temporary appropriation for salaries in the department has been scaled $100,000. I have got to save that amount in the next two months in some way. If you will let me for that length of time without a superintendent in the Third District, I will save $20,000. If I appoint Reinsteiner's successor at once, I will have to lay off a few inspectors.'"

"Well, the Mayor was busy attending the turnfest and we let the matter rest a few days. We had a talk yesterday and he said he thought it would be better to wait the appointment at once. I would do anything for the Mayor. He has been splendidly since he came into office—treated me like a father. I appointed Brooker."

"Brooker was my choice for the position, and if the appropriation had not been cut down he would have been appointed before. For the rest no vacancy will be made. The Mayor has asked that any be made."

"Haven't the politicians asked it?" "Haven't the politicians always asked for the earth and the fullest concession they haven't always got it in this department."

It was expected that a resolution would be introduced in the Council Tuesday evening demanding an investigation of Mr. Milner's conduct of his department, but it wasn't. The members of the push point to this as another evidence of Milner's surrender.

Another more plausible explanation was given, however, by a member of the House of Delegates.

According to his story the idea of investigating Mr. Milner has been given to the Mayor because a more effective way of getting at the pie has been discovered.

If Mr. Milner does not do what he is expected to an ordinance will be introduced in the House taking from him a large part, if not all of his patronage. The scheme is to either provide for an assistant and invest him with the appointments of the Mayor, or to have the Mayor make the appointments direct.

Mr. Milner was asked if he had heard of this scheme. He answered: "I will not place a straw in their way. It would take a lot of trouble out of my mind. But it won't be done."

SUSTAINED JUDGE TALTY.

Supreme Court Refuses an Appeal to Receiver Green.

The State Supreme Court Wednesday sustained Judge John A. Talty in his ruling in the receivership case of the People's Railway Co.

Shortly after Charles Green was appointed receiver, James Campbell, a member of the board of directors of the People's Railway Co., and Charles Clark applied to the court as bondholders and stockholders for permission to examine the books of the company.

The court granted the order and then the receiver gave notice of appeal to the State Supreme Court, which also sustained Judge Talty in his ruling.

This leaves the matter right where it was when Judge Talty issued the order granting the books. Campbell and Clark are now examining the books. They have the right to examine the books and will probably be opened.

HORSESHOERS' STRIKE.

City Asked Not to Furnish Work to Non-Union Shoeps.

The striking journeyman horseshoers had another audience with Mayor Ziegenhain Wednesday, to ask that no city work be given out to bosses employing non-union labor.

The Mayor promised to do what he could in the matter and asked that lists of all bosses who had agreed to the new rate and conditions be furnished to the board of the departments, that they may know whom to employ.

The men said sixteen bosses have signed since Sunday and that there are about fifty non-union shops now in existence. Most of these are small concerns, employing one or two laborers.
